DEFECT IN AN INDICTMENT.

It Failed to Allege the Specific False Pretense. The motion in arrest of Judgment certified by Justice Montgomery to the court in gen-eral term, to be heard in the first instance, in the case of Jolin E. Lysic, who was con-victed of false pretenses in the criminal court victed of faise pretenses in the criminal court March 31, 1888, in obtaining $30 from Henry Brock, of the Congressional Hotel, by means of a draft drawn on the Consumers' Marble Company of Philadelphia, of which company the defendant claimed to be an agent, was sustained by that court yesterday. When the verdict was rendered in the criminal court, Lysic's counsel, Mr. Jos. Shillington, at once drew up a motion in arrest of judgment, claiming that the indictment failed to allege the specific faise pretense by which defendant obtained the money, that it failed to allege specifically that the false pretenses therein a verred effected the offense folarged, and be cause it failed to set forth any offense of which the law takes cognizance. Later in the day, Justice Cox, in criminal court, granted an order discharging the prisoner.
